Schengen Visas

The Schengen visa is valid for the following countries:

Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Iceland and Norway, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Slovenia and Malta

A Schengen visa issued by an Embassy or Consulate of one of the Schengen countries allows the holder to travel freely in these countries. However, please note that a holder of a Schengen visa is still subject to immigration control and is not guaranteed entry into any of the Schengen countries; a visa is not in itself a right to enter a country. Please check the information sheet 'Traveling with a valid Schengen Visa' that you will receive while picking up your visa, very carefully!

Where should I apply?

- If you intend to visit only one of the Schengen countries, you must apply for a visa at the Embassy or Consulate of that country.
- If you intend to visit several of the Schengen countries, you must apply for a visa at the Embassy or Consulate of the country in which your main destination will be, or, in case there is no main destination, the first Schengen country of entry.
